Chandra Harrington volunteered to help organize this project, which has CPA funding to replace five old deteriorated markers and install five new ones in 2019. A new Black History Group, comprising around a dozen knowledgeable volunteers, has emerged to work on this and other projects. The new markers will focus on sites as well as individuals, including the Cambridge Community Center on Callender Street; the North Cambridge Community Church on Walden Street and its pastor, Rev. Samuel Weems; Lewisville, off Garden Street; The Dunbar Club on Franklin Street; and the Margaret Fuller Neighborhood House on Cherry Street.

Cambridge Black Trailblazers bookmarks released, first in a series. Packets of seven bookmarks were given to librarians in Cambridge elementary schools, who will share with young readers. The bookmarks, also available at Cambridge public libraries, are the work of the Black History Project, a small group of volunteers (including Chandra Harrington and Paula Paris). The first batch celebrates seven trailblazers with strong ties to Cambridge: Roy Allen, one of television's first Black stage managers; Joyce London Alexander, first Black U.S. Magistrate Judge; Charles LeRoy Gittens, first Black Secret Service agent; Gertrude Wright Morgan, a founder of the Niagara Movement and NAACP; Henry F. Owens, founder of Owens Moving Company; Dr. Elizabeth Rawlins, educator and advocate for students of color; and Chef Leon West, member of the African American Chef's Hall of Fame. At least twenty more bookmarks are planned. For more information, visit cambridgeblacktrailblazers.com. XV. Budgets, Personnel, and Facilities.

1. The Mass Cultural Council has awarded the CHC an unrestricted operating support grant for FY2020 of $12,100, an increase of 34.5% over FY2019. This type of support is incredibly valuable; we use it to fund our archives and public outreach programs.
2. The FY2021 CHC budget request at $789,105 is essentially level-funded from last year. We are asking to make Meta Partenheimer's position as Digital Project Archivist permanent; she is currently funded by a two-year CPA appropriation that supports the C-DASH project.
